2024 Lamborghini Urus Performante: A Masterpiece in Carbon Engineering

Unrivalled Performance and Design

The 2024 Lamborghini Urus Performante is the pinnacle of performance SUVs, combining striking aesthetics with exceptional engineering. With only 1,000 km on the odometer, this grey beauty boasts a powerful presence, accentuated by its aggressive design and extensive use of carbon fibre. The full exterior carbon package includes a carbon bonnet and roof, offering both visual appeal and lightweight performance enhancements.

Luxurious Black Alcantara Interior with Red Stitching

Inside, the Urus Performante is as captivating as its exterior. The black Alcantara interior is adorned with red stitching, providing a touch of contrast that enhances the sporty yet luxurious ambiance. The use of premium materials like Alcantara ensures a plush, tactile experience, while the ergonomic design keeps you comfortable on long drives or high-speed sprints.

Full Matte Carbon Interior and Rear Entertainment

Every inch of the interior has been meticulously crafted, including a full matte carbon finish that complements the Urus' high-performance ethos. Rear entertainment is also included, allowing passengers to enjoy media while on the go, ensuring an exceptional in-car experience for both driver and passengers.

Bang & Olufsen Sound System in Anodized Black Finish

For audiophiles, the Bang & Olufsen sound system in anodized black delivers a rich, immersive listening experience. Whether you're enjoying music or taking calls, the sound quality is crystal clear, making it an essential part of this luxury SUV's appeal.
