2019 Lamborghini Urus Mansory – Unparalleled Luxury and Performance

Striking Matt Black Exterior – Aggressive and Refined

The 2019 Lamborghini Urus Mansory stands out with its Matt Black exterior, exuding an aggressive yet sophisticated presence. Mansory's bespoke body kit includes exclusive features such as carbon fiber accents, extended front and rear bumpers, and wide-body fenders, all designed to enhance both aesthetics and aerodynamics. This is a Lamborghini like no other, where performance meets visual power.

Tiffany Blue Interior – A Touch of Luxury and Exclusivity

Inside, the Tiffany Blue leather upholstery creates a unique and opulent environment, a perfect contrast to the sleek exterior. The cabin is crafted with Mansory's signature carbon fiber trim, showcasing precision and attention to detail. Every touchpoint, from the customized dashboard to the seats, is designed for comfort and exclusivity.

Carbon Fiber Interior and Exterior – Lightweight and High-Performance

Both the interior and exterior are meticulously designed with carbon fiber, providing an ultra-lightweight build while maintaining extreme durability. The carbon fiber steering wheel, center console, and door panels complement the custom exterior details, adding a layer of performance-focused luxury.

Powerful V8 Engine – Thrilling Performance

The Lamborghini Urus Mansory is powered by a 4.0L twin-turbocharged V8 engine, pushing 650 HP and 850 Nm of torque, enabling 0-100 km/h in just 3.6 seconds. The AMG performance exhaust system gives it a raw, exhilarating sound, while the quad-turbocharged V8 engine delivers a level of speed and power suited to any adventure.
