Incredible Power and Speed

At its heart, the Huracán Evo Spyder Novitec houses a 5.2-liter naturally aspirated V10 engine, producing 640 horsepower and 443 lb-ft of torque. With the Novitec performance upgrade, throttle response and aerodynamics are further optimized, delivering exceptional handling and balance. Exquisite Exterior Design

The 2022 Huracán Evo Spyder Novitec turns heads with its aggressive and aerodynamic silhouette. The forged lightweight wheels and Novitec sport suspension complete its race-inspired design, combining beauty and performance in perfect harmony.

Luxurious and Sophisticated Interior

Inside, the Black Alcantara and leather interior delivers a cockpit crafted for driving excellence. The carbon fibre trim, Lamborghini digital display, and custom contrast stitching add exclusivity and refinement.
