2022 Mercedes-Benz C63 S AMG Cabriolet Final Edition 1 of 499 for Sale in Dubai

A Limited-Edition AMG V8 Cabriolet

Discover this distinctive 2022 Mercedes-Benz C63 S AMG Cabriolet Final Edition for sale in Dubai, presented in dramatic Magno Black with a striking Black and Yellow interior. Showing 27,000 km, this special example combines open-top driving with the unmistakable character of AMG's 4.0-litre V8 and the exclusivity associated with its 1 of 499 Final Edition designation.

Created to celebrate an important chapter in the history of the C63, the Final Edition gives enthusiasts an opportunity to experience the V8-powered C-Class Cabriolet in an especially distinctive specification. This particular car is further enhanced by carbon fibre interior and exterior elements, reinforcing its performance-focused character.

For enthusiasts searching for a Mercedes-Benz C63 S AMG Cabriolet Final Edition for sale in Dubai, the combination of limited-edition appeal, Magno Black paintwork and contrasting Yellow details makes this an especially eye-catching example.

Magno Black Exterior with Carbon Fibre

The Magno Black exterior gives the C63 S AMG Cabriolet an aggressive yet sophisticated presence. Its matte-style finish emphasises the muscular proportions of the AMG bodywork while creating a purposeful appearance appropriate for a limited-edition performance model.

This example is further enhanced by carbon fibre exterior components. The exposed carbon detailing works naturally with the dark bodywork, creating subtle visual contrast while reinforcing the motorsport influence behind the AMG specification.

With the convertible roof lowered, the car takes on an entirely different personality, revealing the contrasting Black and Yellow cabin and allowing the V8 soundtrack to become an even greater part of the driving experience.

Black and Yellow Performance Interior

Inside, the Black and Yellow interior gives this Final Edition an unmistakable identity. The predominantly Black cabin maintains a focused atmosphere, while Yellow accents introduce a vibrant contrast that distinguishes the car from a conventional C63 S AMG Cabriolet.

The interior is also enhanced with carbon fibre trim, continuing the performance theme established by the exterior specification.

Together, the carbon detailing and contrasting colour scheme create a cockpit that feels suitably special for a limited-production AMG. The driver-focused layout ensures that the performance character remains central to the experience while retaining the comfort and technology expected from Mercedes-Benz.

4.0-Litre AMG V8 Performance

Under the bonnet sits a 4.0-litre V8 engine, paired with an automatic transmission. The live Exotic Cars listing places this example within the 500–600 HP category, delivering the muscular performance expected from the C63 S AMG.

The V8 is a particularly important part of this car's appeal. Combined with the Cabriolet body style, it provides a driving experience that blends substantial performance with open-top theatre.

Lowering the roof allows occupants to experience the engine's character more directly, making the C63 S AMG Cabriolet an appealing choice for enthusiasts who want performance without sacrificing the enjoyment and versatility of a luxury convertible.

Limited-Edition Appeal in Dubai

As a Final Edition 1 of 499, this C63 S AMG Cabriolet offers something beyond the specification of a conventional AMG model. Limited-production performance cars often attract buyers who value rarity and historical significance alongside outright performance.

With 27,000 km, Magno Black paintwork, contrasting Black and Yellow interior and extensive carbon fibre detailing, this example presents a distinctive proposition for enthusiasts seeking a special Mercedes-AMG C63 S Cabriolet in Dubai.
